THE HALLS CAME FROM HARRISBURG.

THEIR RIGHT NAME IS HOERNER-CAREFUL PREPARATIONS FOR THE TRIP TO NEW-YORK. Harrisburg, Penn., May 15 (Special).-The two men who shot the "green-goods" man named Phillips, in Prooklyn on Saturday night, are E. K. Hoerner and Robert Hoerner, both of this city. This afternoon it was discovered that a woman named Heck, living on Brown-ave., let slip some information to the effect that E. K. Hoerner had gone to New-York to buy "green-goods," and she was greatly agitated on hear ing that a man named Hall had used his pistol after Middletown, but subsequently removed here and was a barkeeper. He afterward kept a hotel, but sold out about a anonth ago on account of trouble with his wife over the Hock woman. He and his wife separated, she going to Goldsborough, York County, and he to Steetton, where his father is a reputable hotel keeper. Robert Hoerner, the brother, is a railway conductor, and had a furlough for several days from last Friday. While Edward was regarded as quick posed to quarrel. Last Thursday Edward Hoerner bought two rounds of cartridges for his revolver at the store of W. H. Lawser & Brother, and they were put up in a small envelope, the one found on him when arrested. Mr. Lawser saw the brothers on Thursday evening, on the way to the Pennsylvania Railway Station. They carried satchels and umbrellas, and when he accosted them, although perfectly well acquainted, they did them, although perfectly well acquainted, they did not reply. On Friday afternoon both men went to the Hershey House, where Edward, was formerly a bartender, and during the evening Edward showed his revolver to the night clerk. When they left there "If anybody asks you where we have gone, tell them you don't know." They left here on one of the night goods" operator, in Gunyon's restaurant, at No. 29 Greenpoint-ave., Brooklyn, on Saturday evening, was Greenpoint-ave., Brooklyn, on Saturday evening, was arraigned yesterday with his brother, Robert, in the Ewen Street Police Court. Fhillips still lies in St. Catherine's Hospital, in a precarious condition. He is addicted to the use of morphine, and this, it is feared, may have weakened his system so that he will be unable to recover. Another attempt was made yesterday to extract the bullet, but failed. The bullet has lodged in the abdominal cavity, and can enty be extracted by a dangerous operation, and this will not be undertaken. Home Surgeon Vollo said yesterday that Phillips would not live longer than two days.

The prisoners maintain that they met Phillips by chance in Ell abeth, N. J., and that he induced them to come to New-York to look at the "stuff." They admit, however, that they had received a circular signed by "H. Wagner," offering $10,000 worth of "green goods" for $650.

Little or nothing can be learned about Phillips by the police. Before his removal to the bo-pital he told the sergeant of the Seventh Practine that he lived at No. 220 Third ave., New-York, His occupation, he said, was that of a sporting man. At the hospital he said, was that of a sporting man. At the hospital he said, was that of a sporting man. At the hospital he said his address was No. 302 Third-ave. The wife of the wounded man called at the hospital again, yesterday, and spent several hours at his bredsde. Justice Watson adjourned the case until to-day, when the examination will be held. The prisoners were committed to Raymond Street Jail. arraigned yesterday with his brother, Robert, in the

THE COLORADO TROUBLES SETTLED. Chicago, May 15.-The long-standing differences be-GAMES IN OTHER CITIES.

Philadelphia, May 15.—The Senators did not cut much of a figure in to-day's game. In the first four innings Philadelphia made fourteen hits, with a total of twenty-one bases, off Meckin. Then Durya went in, and was more effective, although the hitting of the home train did not abate. Weather cloudy. Attendance, 2,789.

Iween the Colorado Midland and the Denver and Rio Grande have been finally settled, and rates in Colorado will be restored as soon as it can legally be done. The matter of running one or two trains each way every day will be left to each road to do as it pleases about, and all other matters not bearing strictly upon the points at issue will also be left to the presidents of the different roads. The effect of the settlement Pair rates cast of the Missouri River, but they will not reach the point which it was originally intended that they should. The Atchison's notice of withdrawal from the Western Fussencer Association expires on Saturday, and a meeting of general managers has been called for Friday, to see if matters cannot be arranged so that the Atchison will remain in the association. The Atchison has all along been in favor of a lower rate to the World's Fair than that officially adopted by the association, and it will now insist that some concessions be made to its wishes in this regard. It will ask that the round-trip rate, Denver to Chicago, be not over $35, and that from Kansas City $15 or $16.

THE ARBITRATORS OF THE FAST-TRAIN DISPUTE. The arbitrators selected to sit in judgment on the ite between the New-York Central and the other trunk lines over the former's proposed twenty-hour train to Chicago are A. J. Cassatt and William Bilss. Mr. Cassatt, who is a director of the Pennsylvania cials, and Mr. Bliss, who is president of the Boston and Albany road and intimately associated with the Vanderbilts, was chosen by the Pennsylvania people. In case they both consent to act and are unable to agree, they are authorized to choose a third arbi-

That was the last seen of him alive. For news of Hall, if alive, $500 was offered; for the recovery of his body $100, and in case he was murdered $1.000 for the arrest and conviction of his assassin. Some boys who were playing along the river saw the body floating up the river with the tide. Hall's watch and chain were found and all suspicion of foul play were set at rest by the finding of the mency and valuable papers which he had with him when he disappeared.
